Principal’s Report

OH MY JOLLY GOODNESS!

Yesterday, the students and staff along with 3 very muscly and awesome volunteers, moved 15 classrooms of furniture, resources and equipment!

A huge thank you to Rob and John, Hunter and Jackson AND especially to Jodie, Gayle and Lisa who have swept, stacked, mopped, wiped, lugged, tossed, discovered (eek!) years of collectibles... the stuff that ‘might come in handy’, for the last 2 weeks and who yesterday lifted and carried from one end of the school to the other, all day. You girls totally rock.

FAREWELLS AND WELCOMES

We are very sad to be wishing farewell to a number of our staff – some are off on new adventures while others are taking time to ponder the next phase of their professional lives. Each and every one of these amazing people have given their all to our school. Thank you from the bottom of every heart that beats the Pacific Paradise rhythm.

Farewell, good luck and HUGE hugs to Larissa Tompkins, Sally White, Cathy Richardson, Danielle Stewart, Nathan Capps, Sarah Mau and Annette Wells.

Of course as the cycle turns, we also welcome new members to the Pacific Paradise family, for 2017 we are excited to be working with Samantha Colahan, Jennifer Rose, Dale Stevenson, Caitlin Frohloff, Melissa Lafferty, Dianne Dooccy and Kerrie Vanderplas and we are welcoming ‘back’ to the fold Anthea Waerea and Anne Dale.

Gaynor Williams will be continuing her role as Acting Deputy Principal at Undurba State School, and I am very pleased that Jodie Findlay has agreed to continue in the role of Head of Curriculum. As I shared with you last week, Brett Dowdell will be our Deputy Principal in 2017 while Jo wrangles a toddler and a new baby.

I can feel the excited anticipation about the new year across the whole school – one full of learning, adventure and FUN!
THANKS
When I was invited to participate in the selection process for Principal of Pacific Paradise State School – I knew it was an opportunity too good to pass up. I can’t fully describe the excitement I felt when I was told my application was successful – and how nervous I was.

Since arriving at PPSS, I have been welcomed, supported and encouraged by all staff, students, parents and the wider community. The ‘future’ is an amazing land that we can discover together.

Thank you for your willingness to share ‘Paradise’ with me, have a safe, happy and fun Christmas – full of love and laughter.

MARGIE BURRELL,
PRINCIPAL
